NDS for NT 2.0

I was just reading the article "NDS for NT 2.0: The Easy Way to Manage Windows NT Servers" (NetWare Connection, Apr. 1999, pp. 6–16), and I noticed what may be an error in the section "Moving Users Between Domains" (p. 16). Step two says to "drag-and-drop the NDS User object from the old NDS container object to the new container object."

I haven't tried using NDS for NT just yet (that's why I was reading the article), but unless things have changed, dragging and dropping the user from the old container object to the new container object will make that user a trustee of the new Novell Directory Services (NDS) container. To move a leaf object you select the objects and then choose the Object-Move options in the NetWare Administrator (NWADMIN) utility.

You are absolutely right; a simple drag-and-drop of an object will make the object a trustee of the container. My intention in this section was to provide general steps rather than a keystroke-by-keystroke explanation. The key to moving an object with a drag-and-drop action is to hold down the <Ctrl> key while you drag-and-drop the object into the new NDS container. I apologize for the oversight—thanks for catching it!

Sending Messages in NetWare 4.11

I would like to know how to disable or prevent the sending of messages in NetWare 4.11. I don't know how to use the SEND command to prevent receiving messages. I need a set of really simple steps.

Thank you,
Cindy Walter

The SEND options for NetWare 4.11 are as follows:

Accept all messages	/A=A /A
Accept only console messages	/A=C
Accept no messages	/A=N
Accept messages only when polled	/A=P
Poll server for stored messages	/P

I hope this helps.

NDS for UNIX?

There are a lot of articles about NDS for Solaris and NDS for NT. However, I rarely see articles about NDS for UNIX. This absence is strange because NDS for UNIX was the first release of NDS on a platform other than NetWare. Can we see more articles about NDS for UNIX?

Correction

As several of our astute readers have pointed out, there is an error in the "How to Brew HotJava" sidebar of the article "Wake Up to Server-Side Java." (NetWare Connection, June 1999, p. 16.) Step 3 under "Install HotJava on the NetWare 5 Server" should read as follows:

3. Add the following lines to the java.cfg file in the SYS:\ETC directory on the NetWare 5 server:

```
CLASSPATH=$CLASSPATH;OSA_HOME\HotJava 1.15
CLASSPATH=$CLASSPATH;OSA_HOME\HotJava 1.15\lib
CLASSPATH=$CLASSPATH;OSA_HOME\HotJava 1.15\lib\classes.zip
CLASSPATH=$CLASSPATH;OSA_HOME\HotJava 1.15\lib\classes.zip\HotJavaBean.jar
```

We deeply regret any inconvenience this error might have caused. ●
