Getting Started

1

Novell® GroupWise® Messenger is a corporate instant messaging product that uses Novell eDirectory™ as its user database.

You can create a Contact List, send instant messages, create an archive of messages, allow and block others from seeing your availability, and more.

GroupWise Messenger options are available only if GroupWise Messenger is installed and running.

This section contains the following topics:

- ♦ Section 1.1, “Logging In to GroupWise Messenger,” on page 9
- ♦ Section 1.2, “Logging Out of GroupWise Messenger,” on page 10
- ♦ Section 1.3, “Connecting Messenger to Other Instant Messaging Systems,” on page 10

1.1 Logging In to GroupWise Messenger

- 1 Open GroupWise Messenger, using the  icon on your desktop.
- 2 Type your user ID in the User ID field.
- 3 Type your password in the Password field.
- 4 Select Remember Password if you want the system to not ask you for your password again.

The user ID and password you use to log in to GroupWise Messenger is your directory (Novell eDirectory) user ID and password, which might not be the same as your GroupWise user ID and password. Check with your system administrator if you don't know your password.

5 Click Advanced.

6 Type your server name in the Server field.

7 Type your port number in the Port field.

If you are not sure what to type in the Server and Port fields, contact your system administrator.

8 Click OK.

When you log in to GroupWise Messenger, the  GroupWise Messenger icon is added to the system tray for Windows and Linux. For Macintosh, the  GroupWise Messenger icon is added to the dock.

1.2 Logging Out of GroupWise Messenger

1 Click File > Log Out.

Log Out logs you out of GroupWise Messenger but does not close the main window or exit GroupWise Messenger.

There are two other options on the main File menu: Close this Window closes the GroupWise Messenger window but leaves the  icon in the system tray for Windows and Linux, and leaves the  icon on the dock for Macintosh. Exit logs you out of GroupWise Messenger, closes the GroupWise Messenger window, and removes the icon from the system tray for Windows and Linux, and from the dock on Macintosh.

If at any time your network or GroupWise Messenger connection is interrupted, you are logged out of GroupWise Messenger, but as soon as your connection is restored, you are logged back in. If you are in the middle of a conversation when this happens, the conversation can continue as soon as the connection is restored.

1.3 Connecting Messenger to Other Instant Messaging Systems

Pidgin* is an open source project that enables you to connect various instant messaging networks, including GroupWise Messenger. When you use Pidgin with GroupWise Messenger, you are not limited to instant messaging colleagues and friends who are on your same GroupWise Messenger network. For example, if you have a friend that uses MSN Messenger*, you can chat with that friend through your GroupWise Messenger system by using Pidgin.

For more information about Pidgin that isn't covered in this section, see the Pidgin Web Site \(http://www.pidgin.im/\).

- ♦ Section 1.3.1, "Downloading and Installing Pidgin," on page 10
- ♦ Section 1.3.2, "Setting Up Pidgin," on page 11

1.3.1 Downloading and Installing Pidgin

4 (Optional) In the Alias field, enter a name for the contact.

5 In the Add buddy to group field, click the drop-down list and click the category where you want to add your contact.

This feature helps you keep your contacts organized.

6 Click Add.

Working with Broadcasts

A broadcast message is a message that can either be sent to the entire system or to individual users. There are two types of broadcast message types: a system broadcast that is sent to all users and a broadcast message that is sent to selected users.

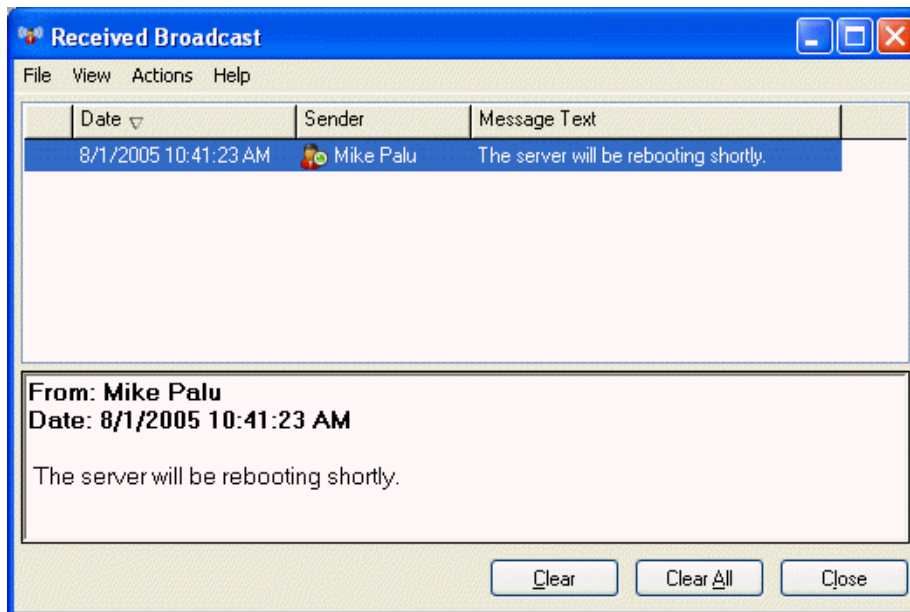

A broadcast message is a one-way message; you cannot respond to it. By default, broadcast messaging to other users is enabled, and system broadcasts are disabled. A system administrator can change the defaults.

Personal History shows past messages that you have either received or sent in GroupWise® Messenger. This feature is helpful when you need to find information from an earlier message. Conversations, chat rooms, and broadcasts are all part of your personal history. Personal history can be disabled by an administrator. By default, personal history is enabled for all users.

Most history files are associated with the type of window you are in and who you are messaging. For example, all your conversations with Mike Palu would be saved in a file named `Conv_mpalu_number.hst`. If it is a chat room history file, the name changes to `Chat_nameofchatroom_number.hst`. However, all sent broadcasts are saved in the `Broadcasts_sent.hst` file. You can change the history file location. For more information about moving the history file, see Section 8.18, “Changing the History Files Location,” on page 43.
